Free coach training in Port Macquarie

The Australian Sports Commission is offering free training to parents, members of sporting clubs, teachers, high school and university students, volunteers and sports lovers.

The Community Coach Training Program (CCTP) is part of the Australian Sports Commission's Active After-School Communities (AASC) program.

Community coaches have the opportunity to inspire Australian children to develop a life-long love of participating in sport by being part of the AASC program.

'The course provides beginner and established coaches with the skills and resources to deliver sport and other physical activities using the Playing for Life approach to coaching, where children's skills are developed through the use of games. Prior coaching experience is not necessary.

'Coaching in the AASC program is also a great way to promote your organisation to hundreds of children, if you are already affiliated with a club.'

What: Free Community Coach Training Program

When: 8.30am – 4.00pm 14 August 2011

Where: Port Stadium, Port Macquarie

For more information about the Community Coach Training Program, contact AASC Regional Coordinator, Jarrod Smith on 6584 6267 or jarrodm.smith@ausport.gov.au
